

top projects 2003

#28

BEN FRANKLIN ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

Vancouver, Wash.

This new elementary school is approximately 39,000 square feet. It features wood and masonry construction, exterior brick veneer metal siding and a composition roof. The existing elementary school will be demolished during the summer of 2003.

Photo courtesy of LSW Architects PC

Project Cost:
$6.1 million
Sitework Start:
August 2002
Completion:
September 2003
Peak Construction Employment:
65

General Contractor:
TRIPLETT WELLMAN INC.
P.O. Box 160
Woodburn, OR 97071

Owner:
Vancouver School District

Project Manager:
Jon Schiele

Project Superintendent:
Scott Bennett

Architect:
LSW Architects PC

Engineers:
Conler & Associates, Harper Houf Righellis
Inc., MKE & Associates Inc.

Subcontractors: C&T Nonstop Masonry, Jarmer Electric, JRT Mechanical, Northwest Construction, Northwest Heating & Sheetmetal, West Coast Wallboard