

PROJECT COST: $11 MILLION

SITWORK STARTED: AUGUST 2004

COMPLETION DATE: SEPTEMBER 2005

PEAK EMPLOYMENT: 75

GENERAL CONTRACTOR:

Triplett Wellman Inc.

OWNER:

Washington State University

FINANCING:

Washington State University

SENIOR PROJECT MANAGER:

Gene Wellman

PROJECT MANAGER:

Steve Duch

SUPERINTENDENT:

Mike Hansen

ARCHITECT:

LSW Architects

ENGINEERS:

Dupont Engineering LLC

Harper Houf Peterson Righellis Inc.

Kramer Gehlen & Associates Inc.

MKE & Associates Inc.

SUBCONTRACTORS/SUPPLIERS:

Accent Masonry, Cascade Acoustics Inc., Emmons

General Contracting Inc., The Environmentalists,

Ray's Plumbing, Prairie Electric

Clark Center at Washington State University Vancouver

Vancouver, Washington

Clark Center, located on Washington State University's campus in Vancouver, is a three-story, structural steel-and-concrete building with about 60,000 square feet of space. The exterior is clad with brick veneer and metal panels. Stone retaining walls, concrete pavers and landscaping are included in sitework for the project.