

top projects 2005 44

PROJECT COST: $8.82 MILLION

SITWORK STARTED: DECEMBER 2004

COMPLETION DATE: DECEMBER 2005

PEAK EMPLOYMENT: 60

GENERAL CONTRACTOR:

Triplet Wellman Inc.

OWNER:

Evergreen Public Schools

FINANCING:

Evergreen Public Schools

SENIOR PROJECT MANAGER:

Gene Wellman

PROJECT SUPERINTENDENT:

Eric Hall

PROJECT MANAGER:

Sally Morlock

ARCHITECT:

LSW Architects

ENGINEERS:

GeoDesign Inc., Interface Engineering,

Kramer Gehlen & Associates, MKE & Associates,

PBS Engineering & Environmental

OTHER ASSOCIATES:

Heery International

SUBCONTRACTORS/SUPPLIERS:

Accent Masonry, Dycon Construction,

Harlen's Drywall Co. Inc., JRT Mechanical Inc.,

Shaw West Electrical Contractors, The Environmentalists

Orchards Elementary School

Vancouver, Washington

The Orchards Elementary School project is a 35,000-square-foot, structural steel and woodframe building currently being built behind an existing school building. The exterior of the new building is a combination of wood and metal siding with CMU and brick veneer.

